

Links in a Chain

VINCENT

Stone will perish
The word will remain
I hope I haven't botched it up
I'd just have to do it again
Stone will perish
The word will remain
I was right all along
We are nothing but links in a chain

Never think the dead are dead
So long as there are men alive
The dead will live, the dead will live
That's how I feel it now
Nothing sad
No more pain
Stone will perish
The word will remain

Don't cry dear brother
The tree would not fall

THÉO

Vincent please tell me why

VINCENT

I did it for the good of us all

THÉO

You can recover, I know you're in pain
You've pulled through before

VINCENT

But Théo I'd just do it over again

THÉO

I know you haven't had your share of happiness
Forget this illusion that you are all alone
Vincent, I'm here now and I'll stay by your side
Just rest. When you're well I'll take you home

Théo dear brother
La tristesse durera
You know there is no end to sadness

But Vincent there's so much more
Together we're strong
You and I can beat this madness
Don't give up now, don't give in
Think of our sister
Think of our mother
You know I am right
You know you we can win
Don't leave me now
I can't lose my very own brother

I've burdened you enough
I've made your life so much harder
Théo don't be afraid
I no longer face a wall
And my future here is made
I did it for the good of us all

Vincent, be strong
We'll pull through this some how

I wish I could pass away like this
I wish I could go home now
I'd like to go home now
